Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Brenda S. Greene of Winton to the Roanoke-Chowan Community College Board of Trustees.

Greene is manager of the Homeownership Assistance Programs at Choanoke Area Development Association. She is a member and secretary of Choanoke Public Transportation Authority and is a board member on the Education Committee for the Association of Housing Counselors. Greene received her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from UNC at Greensboro and her Master's degree from Cambridge College in Springfield, Mass.

The board has 12 members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members. The county commissions and the local board of education each appoint four members.
